ANIMAL COMMUNICATOR ~ AUTHOR of Communication with all Life,
Revelations of an Animal Communicator

Communication With All Life University

Do you feel deeply connected to animals and you want to work with them but you haven't figured out how?

Are you an animal caregiver that has amazing intuition and you wanted to feel more confident about what you experience?

Are you working for someone as an animal caregiver and you know you have so much more to offer?

Are you a professional that is looking to work with animals?

Are you an artist or already in the intuitive/healing profession and you want to branch out to working with animals?

Let me help you design your own unique opportunity to work intuitively/professionally with animals.

Communication with all Life University Certification Program (CWALUCP) is the brainchild I've had as an Animal Communication teacher for over 10 years. And now I can really help you with a comprehensive program. The program is designed specifically for you - you will learn and experience Animal Communication on a profound and professional level and will have lots of experience to draw upon. You will be exposed to numerous healing/body/energetic modalities and required to learn and certify in two other areas that you are drawn to.

This can become part of your immediate income as well as building a database and testimonials. You will continue on your chosen Spiritual or Nature Enlightenment. You will be required to use techniques to clear your own "stuff" that blocks your ability to use your intuition, be of service, or to be completely open with no agenda.

For more Info. or to join the online Animal Communication community www.communicationwithalllifeu.ning.com Here you learn more about the program and see the schedule. There are ways to accommodate you if travel is a challenge. If you have any questions, please e-mail me at joanranquet@joanranquet.com. Feel free to meet some of the students and other Animal Communicators at <http://www.communicationwithalllifeu.ning.com/>.
